

ACTING4 THE SCREEN

About This Course

- Learn basic building blocks to make a great screen performance
 - Computer or smartphone is all you need
 - Lessons, student demonstrations and engaging assignments
 - Improve your skills while working on your own monologue
- Taught by lifetime actors
 - Work at your own pace
 - 12 Lesson course, 1 semester credit (60 Hours)

Whether you're an aspiring actor, director or you just like movies you will love learning what it takes to be a great screen actor. This 12 part course teaches the basic building blocks that make a great screen performance. You'll be amazed what you can learn on your own at home, even without interactive coaching. We give weekly exercises to work on your skills and students prepare a short monologue throughout the course as well as student workshops for learning from students just like them.